THE BAR-ROQUE 6469 WINE STORY

In 1985 architect Catherine Roque started a new life when she renovated an old “mas” that included a few hectares of vineyards. Inspired by organic and biodynamic farming, Catherine followed her own philosophy in planting trees in the vineyard, sowing chick-peas in the vineyard and letting the grass grow between the vines. She is particularly fond of the Faugères terroir, the slate soil fascinates her not only for its mineral expression but also for its pointed and straight shapes in the wines.

In 2005 Christophe Megel our partner, met her and he felt he had found the perfect winemaker to work with on his winery project to make his own dream come true. Both worked together to create Cuvee 6469, a special wine that will marry the two continents together. They produce natural wines using traditional methods. Their philosophy is to make honest, balanced wines that express the terroir of their land. They use organic farming practices and minimal intervention during vinification, allowing the grapes to express themselves as naturally as possible. Together they strive to create unique, complex, and expressive wines that will bring joy and pleasure to all those who enjoy them.

OUR VARIOUS CUVÉE ARE:

CUVÉE 6469 WHITE

Appellation: Pays d'Oc, Grape Varieties: Viognier 80%, Chardonnay 20%

Terroir: Stony clay limestone hillsides.

Tasting notes: Golden colour with green highlight. Elegant nose with blend of mineral, flinty scents and grapeful. A nice balance in mouth, between sweetness, liveliness and aromatic complexity, white peaches, preserved lemon.

CUVÉE 6469 RED

Appellation: Languedoc, Grape Varieties: Syrah 50%, Cinsault 40%, Grenache 10%

Terroir: Chalky Hill of Languedoc Old Cinsault and Grenache vineyard.

Tasting notes: 6469 Red presents finest touch of violet flower and pepper, signature of Syrah, followed by red berries of Cinsault. Generous and gourmand in the palate, soft and mineral tannins contribute to the balance.

CUVÉE 6469 ROSÉ

Appellation: Pays d'Herault, Grape Varieties: Cinsault 80%, Syrah 20%

Terroir: Stony Clay and Chalky of Languedoc North Pezenas.

Tasting notes: Luminous pale pink colored wine, delicious aromas of summer fruits, peach and raspberry. The palate balances the subtle sweetness of fresh fruits and lemon acidity.

PREMIUM CUVÉE:

MAS D'ALEZON, CABRETTA, FAUGÈRES

Grenache Blanc, Grenache Gris, Roussanne, all picked together at the end of September and pressed together, and fermented in the Stockinger barrel. At the beginning of October, Catherine picks the Clairette, which is given a ten day maceration, barrel, which makes for plenty of extraction and a rich golden colour.

DOMAINE DE CLOVALLON, LES INDIGÈNES

A wine made without any sulphur at all from a walled vineyard up in the hills above Bédarieux. There are about twenty different grape varieties, red white and gris, all mixed up together and the vineyard has never succumbed to phylloxera. The colour is quite deep and the nose firm and peppery; there are leathery notes of the palate, with some quite sturdy flavours and integrated tannins.

MAS D'ALEZON, PRESBYTÈRE, FAUGÈRES

A blend of 60 - 65% Cinsault and about 10% Carignan, vinified in an egg, with a small percentage in wood. Catherine is becoming increasingly interested in Cinsault and you can detect its elegant fragrance in the wine. The palate is ripe and rounded, while staying elegant and fresh. The tannins are well integrated. I found a note of liquorice, which Catherine said, came from the schist. Altogether a lovely Faugères.
